Zurich, 26 January 2022

Ad hoc announcement pursuant to Art. 53 LR

New management at SF Urban Properties Ltd

- Planned handover of Adrian Schenker's CEO function
- Bruno Kurz to be the new CEO from 1 April 2022

As part of its succession planning, the Board of Directors has named Bruno Kurz as the new CEO of SF Urban Properties Ltd from 1 April 2022. He will be taking over from Adrian Schenker, who has served as the company's CEO since 2018.

Under Adrian Schenker's leadership, the portfolio has experienced lasting and successful growth in recent years, and the company has been able to implement a number of development projects during his time at the helm. In future, Adrian Schenker will focus more on SFP Group's further international expansions, which already includes VIGA Real Estate in Copenhagen.

Alexander Vögele, Chairman of the Board of Directors of SF Urban Properties Ltd: "I would like to thank Adrian for his valuable and effective work. With him at the helm, we were able to achieve important milestones and continue to grow SF Urban Properties Ltd during the last few years. Bruno Kurz is the ideal person to fill this vacancy."

Bruno Kurz (48) joined Swiss Finance & Property Funds Ltd in April 2021 as Head of Direct Real Estate Services & Mandates and is a member of senior management. Bruno Kurz is a qualified architect and real estate economist. He previously worked as CEO of Immoveris AG, a subsidiary of the Swiss Prime Site Group.

Adrian Murer, Group CEO of Swiss Finance & Property: "It's great to be getting Bruno Kurz on board as an ideal successor in terms of continuous and long-term development. In my view, this puts the company on track for ongoing, lasting growth."
